1930 Walkathon Programme

S.A. Engineering College, in collaboration with the Cyber Crime Department, organized the “1930 Walkathon Programme” to honor India’s freedom struggle. A total of 104 students actively participated, showing their dedication to national awareness and civic responsibility. The walkathon began at Kalaivanar Arangam and concluded at the Doordarshan Office, covering a meaningful route. The event aimed to spread awareness on the historical importance of the year 1930 and cyber safety among youth. Students held banners promoting patriotic values and responsible digital citizenship. Faculty members and officials from the Cyber Crime Department guided and supported the participants throughout. The collaboration also included brief awareness talks on digital crimes and preventive measures. The programme concluded with a pledge to uphold national integrity and cyber responsibility.

Cybercrime Awareness Programme

S.A. Engineering College, in association with the Cyber Crime Department, organized a Cybercrime Awareness Programme to educate students about digital safety. A total of 29 students participated actively in the session, gaining valuable insights into cyber threats and preventive measures. The session covered topics such as online fraud, phishing, identity theft, and the importance of strong passwords. Experts from the Cyber Crime Department shared real-life case studies and legal implications of cyber offenses. Students were encouraged to practice responsible internet usage and report suspicious activities. Interactive Q&A sessions allowed participants to clarify doubts and understand digital safety protocols. The programme aimed to build awareness among youth to protect themselves in the digital world. The event concluded with a pledge to promote cyber hygiene and stay vigilant online.

Medical Checkup Camp

S.A. Engineering College, in collaboration with the Lions Club of Bharat, organized a comprehensive Medical Checkup Camp for students and staff. The camp offered various health services including general health checkup, blood sugar testing, bone flexibility assessment, eye examination, and ECG screening. Medical professionals and volunteers from the Lions Club ensured proper screening and guidance. Participants received immediate feedback on their health status and preventive health tips. The initiative aimed to promote awareness on regular health monitoring and early detection of ailments. More than 100 individuals benefited from the free services provided during the camp. Faculty members coordinated the smooth functioning of the event and ensured maximum participation. The camp was highly appreciated for its service to the college community and emphasis on well-being.

Blood Donation Camp

The NSS Unit of S.A. Engineering College, in association with the Lions Club of Bharat, jointly organized a Blood Donation Camp on campus. The camp witnessed overwhelming participation from students, faculty, and staff. More than 250 units of blood were collected, making it one of the most successful donation drives conducted at the college. Qualified medical teams ensured safe collection and proper handling of the donated blood. Volunteers from the NSS unit actively supported the event through registration and donor care. The camp aimed to promote the spirit of service and save lives through voluntary blood donation. Appreciation certificates were distributed to all donors as a token of gratitude. The event was widely praised for its excellent coordination and contribution to a noble cause.

IPPB and PLI Camp for All Faculties

S.A. Engineering College, in collaboration with the General Post Office (GPO), organized a two-day service camp on campus. The camp aimed to provide students and staff with access to essential postal and financial services. Key services included Aadhar linking, savings account opening, postal ID services, and speed post guidance. GPO officials set up dedicated counters to assist participants efficiently throughout the camp. Students gained awareness about the importance of postal services and government schemes. Faculty members ensured smooth coordination and encouraged maximum participation. Informative sessions were also conducted to explain the benefits of postal banking and insurance. The camp was well-received and appreciated for bringing public services closer to the college community.
