

LITERARY CLUB

Date: 29.01.2025

Session: AN

Venue: Communication Lab

Members: 14

The Literary Club event was held in Communication Lab with 14 participants. It began with an opening speech by Boomika and Pragathi. The event featured two activities: forming words from given letters and creating a story using those words. Participants showcased their creativity, making the event engaging and interactive. Prizes were awarded to the top three winners, adding excitement to the competition. The event was well-organized, successfully conducted, and concluded on a positive note.
